

Burdett discharge planner – easy read version

THIS BOOK IS ABOUT

.....
(service user name)

This booklet must be completed with the person whose discharge is being planned.

Section 1: All about me

My pen portrait

NOTES

My culture, religion and spiritual needs

NOTES

Section 2: Pre-discharge

What I am working on during this admission and how it is going

NOTES

My care, treatment and support plans

NOTES

Section 3: My support needs

Important friendships and relationships and how we will stay in touch when I am discharged

NOTES

My advocate and what they help me with

NOTES

Communicate

How I prefer to communicate and get information

NOTES

My health and well-being

NOTES

	My mental and physical health
---	--------------------------------------

NOTES

	What medicines I take and why I take the medicines
---	---

NOTES

My finances and benefits

NOTES

Behaviours that people are worried about and how to support me

NOTES

How my behaviours can be supported and risk management

NOTES

Things that I can do and things that I need help with to live as independently as possible

NOTES

What I like to do
each day

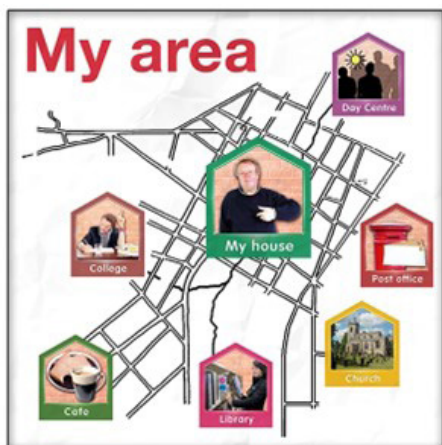

NOTES

Moving on into the community. What I want when I'm discharged

NOTES

Section 4: Discharge planning and community living

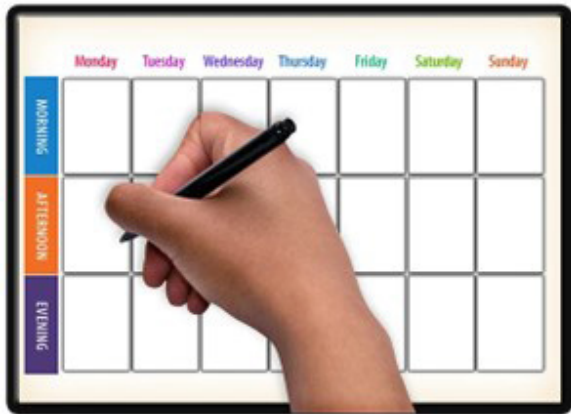

Where I am going to live and details about my new home

NOTES

My community teams

NOTES

My reviews and appointments

NOTES

Before I am discharged – the handover plan

NOTES

Saying goodbye and planning my leaving party

NOTES

Letting people know if I am worried about my discharge or my treatment after leaving hospital

NOTES

Section 5: Discharge planning for hospital transfer

My new hospital is

NOTES

My new inpatient team is

NOTES

My treatment reviews and appointments

NOTES

Before I am transferred – the handover plan

NOTES

	Saying goodbye and planning my leaving party
---	---

NOTES

	What to do if I am concerned about my discharge process or what happened when I left hospital (making a complaint)
---	---

NOTES

This project and related resources have been funded by The Burdett Trust for Nursing